

Fractions

What is a fraction?

Fractions are a way to express part of something.

For example, to indicate how much of this rectangle is shaded green,

you would use the fraction:

$$\frac{5}{6}$$

The top number (5) tells you the number of squares that are shaded green.

The bottom number (6) tells you how many squares make up the whole rectangle.