

ASCP Board of Certification Examination Results for SWTC's MLT Graduates

Certification by the American Society for Clinical Pathologists (ASCP) may be required by some employers hiring Medical Laboratory Technicians in the clinical laboratory setting. While completion of the ASCP MLT Certification exam is not a mandatory part of the MLT program, SWTC encourages all graduates to apply for ASCP certification. In addition to traditionally higher pay scales for certified technicians, the ASCP certification exam demonstrates an individual's commitment to the laboratory profession and offers greater career advancement and variety of job opportunities.

Students who graduate from an accredited Medical Laboratory Technician Program are eligible to take the American Society of for Clinical Pathology (ASCP) Board of Certification (BOC) examination for Medical Laboratory Technicians. The following table shows the passing rate for SWTC Graduates, who take the MLT ASCP Certification Exam within 1 year of graduation.
